

It's my birthday,

and this year I'm asking everyone to save the money that they would have spent on a present, and instead donate it to Buy-A-Net.

Buy-A-Net is a volunteer led charity that distributes bednets, medicine, and educates the people of Uganda on malaria prevention. Malaria is a preventable disease, but it still kills nearly three million people a year. One bednet can protect up to four people. Even the smallest donation can help.
